How Pale You Are!
It is frequently the case of one lady to another.
The fact is not a pleasant one to have mention, but still the fact may be a kindly one, for it sets the one addressed thinking, and gives her the fact that she is not in good health, and leads her to seek a reason therefor. "Paler is almost always attendant upon the first stages of consumption. The system is enfeebled, and the blood is impoverished. Dr.
Pier's "Golden Medical Discovery" will act as a tonic upon the system, will enrich the impoverished blood, and restore roses to the cheek."

The Significance of the Vote on the City Ticket.

Why Good Men Were Snowed Under—The Support of the "Machine" or "Ring," Either Republican or Democratic, Means Certain Defeat for a Candidate in St.
Louis.

The political bosses can draw very little comfort from an analysis of the returns of the recent city election. On the contrary, the figures are full of assurance that the people are determined to "spot" and rebuke any candidate who either is identified with or has the special favor of the Democratic police board ring on the one hand, or the Pohlman-Filley combination on the other. In some cases worthy gentlemen have had their political aspirations blighted, not because they were under the thumb of the machine, but simply because they were so unfortunate as to be smiled upon by "the gang." As illustrating this fact a few cases may be cited.

Mr. McDearmon was referred to on several occasions by the press as having the support of the men who represent the railroad machine and who insure that the people are determined to "spot"
and rebuke any candidate who either is identified with
board ring on the one hand, or the Pohlman-Filley
so unfortunate as to be smiled upon by "the
cited.

Mr. McDearmon was referred to on several occa-
and rebuke any candidate who either is identified with
board ring on the one hand, or the Pohlman-Filley
so unfortunate as to be smiled upon by "the
cited.

In the case of Jay L. Torrey and Daniel Dillon, candidates for the Circuit Judgeship, the former had two years before incurred the ill-will of Pohlman and Filley by his splendid race as an independent Republican, and he, like Romberg, was snowed under by the machine. His unpopularity with the machine gave him strength with the people, and withstanding the fact that he had almost the entire working actively against him, as they were working for the machine, he was elected. When the ballots were counted it was found that Mr. Romberg's majority in this city had reached the immense figure of 3,138.

In the case of Sheriff Michael Foerster, an honest and excellent citizen, was so short-sighted as to publicly identify himself on every occasion with the Pohlman interest and he even in some degree shared the odium of having aided in McLellan's scheme to suppress the district court. Mr. Foerster was regarded as a distinctly popular candidate, without any regard to ring influences and the returns showed for Harrington a majority of 1,627.

For Corcoran, Dr. Wilcox had the great misfortune to be discovered and presented by the Pohlman interest in the Republican Convention. Dr. Nidelet defeated him by 1,048 votes.

For Circuit Attorney the candidates were Ashley Clover and A. A. Faxon. There is no reason for believing that Mr. Faxon had aided the district court. Mr. Faxon was a man of high character with the Democratic party, who figured so conspicuously in the police board troubles. Yet several of those gentlemen took his canvass in charge and gave such special attention to it that he came to be regarded in many quarters and to be occasionally dignified in the press as their candidate. Ashley Clover, on the contrary, occupied the attitude of an anti-machine man in the Republican party, and notwithstanding Mr. Faxon's popularity, Clover's majority was 1,527.

Mr. Eugene C. Tipton, besides having an excellent reputation and a strong personal following, had the bitter animosity of the Lutz element, and although running against Mr. Eugene Weigel, who is himself a tower of strength, he scored the immense majority of 2,212.

In the Eighth Congressional District Wm. M.
Eccles was the second choice of Mr. Pohlman's Convention, which first offered the district with Mr. Piss. John J. O'Neill ran ahead of his ticket, and Mr. Eccles was snowed under by 1,527 votes.

In the Ninth Congressional District the odious Dr.
McLellan was foisted upon the people by Pohlman by the most acrimonious and brazen methods. He received a plurality of 1,097 votes, and Mr. Glover received the minority of 1,097.

OFFICE of St. Louis Mutual Fire Insurance Company, situated on the corner of Seventh and Locust streets, St.
Louis, November 11, 1884.—At a special meeting of the directors of this company the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, by the sudden and unexpected death of our highly respected and valued president, John C. Voss, since the year 1858, presided over our company under its most successful management, and whose death has been recently ascertained to have occurred on the 10th inst., thereby leaving a great void in the management of the company, and the directors, feeling it their duty to fill the void, and to elect a new president, they have resolved, that they will elect a new president, and that they will also elect a new vice-president, and that they
